

Recovery Mode

1. Decide What You're Going To Sell
2. Learn As Much As You Can About The Product
3. Find A Reliable Supplier (Outsourced Worker)
4. Prepare Your Story (The Sales Pitch)
5. Get Out Of Bed & Prepare For Work
6. Drive To Your Local Business District
7. Start At One End Of The Street & Knock On Every Door
8. Don't Stop Until Your Work Day Is Over
9. Sell, Sell & Sell Some More.....

Things To Remember

- Take good notes, collect all images and anything needed to finish the job when something is sold
 - Always ask for a deposit
- Prepare good notes for your outsourced worker and send to worker in a timely manner
 - Try to work through revisions over the phone
- Arrange a time to pick up payment when the job is completed
 - Always ask for referrals when you get paid
